

OFFICE FOR INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC GROWTH

Eric J. [unclear]

STerling 3-7-59

1028 Connecticut Avenue, N.W. • Washington 6

December 4, 1959

Col. Stanley Grogan
Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street, N. W.
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Col. Grogan:

Thanks for coming to the rescue with the pictures. I am returning the extra ones and keeping one for our files, if you don't mind.

Enclosed are several copies of this issue of "Economic World" and I trust that Mr. Dulles does not mind the liberties we took with his testimony.

We were trying to find a device to attract readers to the recent reports of the Joint Economic Committee which, though so important, get little attention from the general public.

You may be interested to know that we are getting an increasing number of requests from business firms for information on the Soviet challenge.

Could you see that we get several copies of Mr. Dulles' speech before the National Association of Manufacturers?

Cordially,

(Mrs.) Harriett S. Crowley
Editorial Director

HSC:ah

Enclosures